CALEB INTERNSHIP OVERVIEW

1. The internship will last for 5 to 7 weeks.
2. The main priority of the internship experience is to provide the trainee with practical ministry experience in Caleb life groups, which should consist of both formal training and on-the-job learning experiences.
3. During the internship there will be periodic assessments to insure that your experience is productive and meaningful.
4. After the internship, team members will be given permanent assignments, which may be at a different location.
5. Team assignments will consider a team member's gifting, personal ministry orientation, the need of the ministry, and most importantly, the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
6. If you have any questions or concerns during your ministry experience please discuss them with your team leader or with the ministry director.
7. There will be a Caleb Ministries Graduation after Phase I & Phase II of the Caleb training has been concluded.
8. Thank you for choosing to serve with Caleb Ministries.
